

From the Patriarchal Wilderness to Intimate Motherland—The Odyssey of Feminist Curriculum Theories

Pei-I Chou

This study is to analyze the main issues of current feminist curriculum theories. First, it is to summarize the developing process of feministic curricular theory. Secondly, it is to discuss the gender traits in educational experience. After that, it is to analyze feministic inter-subjectivity and its influence on education. The fourth part is to analyze how women break silence and deliver their voice against patriarchal knowledge structures and school system. The final section is to discuss ideal curricular pattern and exploration method of feminism. After discussion, we expect that this article would not only voice for feminist curriculum theories, but also attract more concern caring, affiliation, and connection for the field of curriculum.

Keywords : feminist curriculum theories, patriarchy, voice

Associate Professor, Graduate Institute of Education, NSYSU